1 think it is the wrong question; which is, if I look at 2 this and then say there is only speculative risk, does
3 that then mean virtual guarantee?

4 MS. GREENSPAN: Okay. I understand that you
5 would like me to directly answer that specific question.
6 I'm having a little bit of difficulty with that because
7 I don't -- speculative risk means, I think, no risk.
8 And if you find that there is no risk, then you have a
9 virtual guarantee.

10 I'm not sure what else it could mean, if Mr.
11 Mr. Trachtman means something different, but if 12 something that is speculative to me is the equivalent of 13 none; and if there is no risk, then you have a virtual
14 guarantee.

15 THE COURT: Okay. You may go to your
16 argument.

17 MS. GREENSPAN: So I wanted to take, as I
18 said, a step back and think about what is being asked
19 here and what we're talking about.

20 We have a proposal to pay 50 percent
21 second-party payments to a population of claimants who
22 have already received their full first priority payment.

23 These are not people who got nothing. These
24 are people who made their claims, their claims were paid
25 in full. They've got the benefit of the bargain in the
