4. On April 25, 1995, the Court confirmed an earlier order dated December 2, 1993, granting summary judgment in favor of Corning Incorporated. That order was certified as a final judgment under Rule 54(b). An appeal was taken, but later withdrawn. As a consequence, no breast implant claims may be asserted against Corning Incorporated in MDL 926.

5. Dow Corning Corporation filed a petition for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on May 15, 1995; consequently, all litigation against Dow Corning Corporation is currently stayed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362.

6. On April 25, 1995, in an order certified as final under Rule 54(b), the Court granted summary judgment in favor of Scotfoam Corp.; '21' Int'l Holdings, Inc.; '21' Foam Company, Inc.; Knoll Int'l Holdings, Inc.; General Felt Industries, Inc.; Foamex, L.P.; Foamex Products, Inc.; Recticel Foam Company; and Scott Paper Co. An appeal was taken, but later withdrawn. As a consequence, no breast implant claim may be asserted against these companies in MDL 926.

7. Defendant wishes to contest personal jurisdiction on a case-by-case basis.

8. On August 22, 1997, in an order certified as final under Rule 54(b), the court granted summary judgment in favor of General Electric. The appeal from this order was later dismissed. As a consequence, no breast implant claim may be asserted against General Electric in MDL 926.
