ORDER No. 25A
(Setting Evidentiary Hearing on Personal Jurisdiction over Koken)

The court has determined that Koken Company Ltd's challenge of personal jurisdiction, which for several years has been pending through a motion for reconsideration of the initial denial of its "global" motion to dismiss, should be resolved through evidentiary hearings on a case-by-case basis. These evidentiary hearings will be held in Birmingham, commencing at 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, July 20, 1999.

Listed in the appendix to this order are 31 cases in which, according to the court's records, there remain claims against Koken Company Ltd. which the plaintiffs have not indicated can be voluntarily dismissed.

Plaintiffs are requested to notify the court and Koken (through its attorney Lowell Fine) if they determine to voluntarily dismiss Koken from any of these cases rather than present their evidence to justify jurisdiction over Koken in the evidentiary hearing.

If the court has failed to list a case in which there is a claim sought to be pursued against Koken, plaintiff's counsel are requested to so notify the court and Koken (through its attorney Lowell Fine).

This the 9th day of June, 1999.
